Recipes like these are used by women and girls at our partner's Baking School in Thailand. These girls are learning about cooking and baking as a trade so they can escape the sex industry and have another way to provide for their families. Pick out your favorite recipe and enjoy a special meal or treat with friends and family in honor of World Day Against Trafficking!

Looking Back LALI Africa Trip May 27 - June 5

A month ago, the World Help team partnered with Leading and Loving It to travel to Uganda and Rwanda! Here's what Sarah Fontenot, one of the team members who attended, had to say:

"Together with 7 pastor's wives from around the country, we visited our partners in Uganda and Rwanda. We met children and adults who have been impacted by the help and hope the World Help family provides. From community transformation to child sponsorship, we saw the other side of hope, all of which is made possible because of our amazing team who works together to make help and hope a life-changing reality for so many. It was an amazing trip that compelled us to live differently and know that the little we can do makes a world of difference for those we serve."

Employee HIGHLIGHTS

Get to Know Hope Lassiter

Hope is our new Acquisition Coordinator in our Donor Retention Department! In her free time, you can usually find her in the kitchen cooking delicious meals and trying new recipes. She also loves going to the gym and staying active. Did you know Hope has participated in sports since she was only 4 years old? It sounds like she'll be the one to beat in the next cornhole tournament!

Hope is also partial to the Marvel Cinematic Universe. That's why she named her car Pepper, after Pepper Potts in Iron Man. The fact that she loves spicy foods makes the name even more fitting – the hotter the better!
