

PRAY FOR THE NORTH KOREAN CHURCH

In the United States, we can pray and talk to God whenever we want. But in North Korea, boys and girls have to pray in secret. If they go to church or pray in front of their friends, they will be bullied and get in trouble. But they know how important it is to talk to God and still pray every day! You can pray for these children and ask God to protect them.

Hey parents!

Want to learn more about praying for North Korean Christians?
Visit worldhelp.net/prayer.