Employee HIGHLIGHTS

Get to Know Rick Ericson

Rick Ericson is our new Chief Marketing and Development Officer! He is joining the team remotely from Oregon, where he lives with his wife and four boys. A man of many talents, Rick can play guitar, drums, various horns, violin, bass, and piano.

You might be wondering, where did Rick learn to play so many instruments?

Before entering the fundraising world, Rick was a part of various worship bands and received a degree in music theory from the University of Oregon! He even taught music at the YWAM School of Music in Newcastle, Australia. So, if you're looking for a music lesson, Rick might be your guy – as long as you're okay with learning over Zoom.
