

YOU PROVIDED LIFESAVING RELIEF TO HURRICANE HELENE SURVIVORS

Thank you for sending help and hope to people affected by Hurricane Helene.

When Hurricane Helene tore through the southeastern U.S. in September, it became one of the country's deadliest hurricanes in years. The storm caused catastrophic flooding, wiping out everything in its path. And no state was hit harder than North Carolina.

Hurricane Helene caused flooding that washed out roads, destroyed homes, and flattened entire communities.

The aftermath was devastating. In a matter of days, countless people lost everything. Others were stranded because of overflowing rivers and streams. To make matters worse, there was no power or clean water.

But thankfully, you were there to provide Hurricane Helene survivors with the essentials they needed to survive! Because of your generous support, they received lifesaving aid like food, clean water, clothing, medical supplies, and more. These items were a lifeline for men, women, and children in urgent need and served as a powerful reminder that they didn't have to endure this crisis alone.

Here's a testimony to give you a glimpse at the impact of your life-changing gift:

DOUG AND PAM: HOPE FOR THE FUTURE

Doug and Pam were asleep in their home near Asheville,

You helped people like Doug and Pam survive and rebuild after Hurricane Helene.

N.C. when they were jolted awake by roaring winds outside. Hurricane Helene had reached their community, and it had brought torrential downpours and dangerously high wind speeds.

Around 4 a.m., Doug and Pam took refuge in their basement. Shortly after, they heard the terrifying sound of trees crashing through the roof of their home. When the storm finally ended, they went outside to survey the damage – and it was devastating.

Their home had been destroyed by fallen trees, and their yard was littered with debris. Following the storm, Doug and Pam had nowhere to stay and no way to access essentials. They didn't know how they'd survive the coming days.

But that's when world changers like you stepped in to provide Doug and Pam with emergency relief! They received nutritious food, temporary shelter, and other necessities during their greatest time of need.

Because of your support after the hurricane, Doug and Pam are getting back on their feet and have begun rebuilding their home. Thanks to generous gifts like yours, they have hope for a brighter tomorrow.

“As of today, we are in the rebuilding phase of our adventure, and as slow and arduous as this is, we are making headway and progressing to start over again and count our many blessings,” they said.

By providing emergency aid, you gave Hurricane Helene survivors like Doug and Pam the essentials they needed, as well as a sense of hope and community. Your generosity was a lifeline and a tangible reminder of God's love.

THANK YOU!
