Employee HIGHLIGHTS

Get to Know Jacki Dumminger!

Jacki Dumminger recently joined the World Help team as one of our Staff Accountants! You probably already know she's great with math, but she also dreams of improving her art skills. In fact, if Jacki could instantly master any skill, she would choose drawing! She says that artistic talent runs in her family, and she would like to join the fun. "It would also up my game night skills!" she remarked.

In her free time, Jacki enjoys reading, doing puzzles, attending concerts, and – of course – having game nights! She also has a passion for music and likes to jam out to her favorite songs on full volume when she's driving. Did someone say carpool karaoke?
