MARBIN: “I AM VERY GRATEFUL”

Fourteen-year-old Marbin attends a boarding school in Honduras. His family lives in extreme poverty, so the school provides him and the other students with the essentials they need, including education, housing, food, and clothing.

However, the school relies on donations like yours to keep its doors open. That’s why a shipment of new T-shirts from generous World Help supporters was so special for Marbin and his classmates!

Marbin was so excited about this gift that he wrote a letter thanking donors like you for their incredible generosity!

“I am very grateful for receiving your help and being privileged by your donations,” Marbin wrote. “May God keep and protect you always.”

These new T-shirts were a special demonstration of God’s love and provision for Marbin and the other children at the school.
