

What's Going on At WorldHelp®

NEW Baby Alert!

On Thursday, April 2, Jenna Leonard and her husband Joseph welcomed a healthy baby boy into the world! When Daniel Joseph Leonard arrived, he weighed 9 lbs, 15 oz, and was 21.5 inches long. Baby Daniel is already capturing the hearts of everyone who meets him. Please pray for the Leonards as they adjust to being a family of three!

2026 Global Impact Summit

When: April 24-26, 2026

This year's Global Impact Summit was a huge success! Thank you to the entire World Help team for making our biggest event of the year possible. We're starting this fiscal year with a strong foundation and can't wait to see the fruits of the summit throughout the upcoming year.

Fun Fact

Around the world, many people celebrate May Day on May 1 with a traditional spring festival welcoming summer. It's also recognized as International Workers' Day in many of our partner countries in Europe and Latin America. We're so grateful for our World Help employees!

We're excited to spend time together reflecting on last fiscal year and all we have to look forward to in this one! Get ready to celebrate our team's accomplishments and hear about each department's plans to transform even more lives!

Employee HIGHLIGHTS

Get to Know Megan Gingerich

Megan is the Writing and Content Supervisor in our Marketing Department. When she's not serving as the Content Team's fearless leader, she enjoys crafts and video games. And this comes as no surprise, but she also loves to write. In January, she became a published author when she released her epic 560-page novel about sky pirates!

When asked what she would do with a fully paid year-long break from work, Megan replied, "I would adopt a nomadic lifestyle and move to a different country every couple of months, and work on my next book. Because why not?" We totally understand, Megan – as long as you send back lots of pictures!
