IMPACT

Vasyl and his family are Ukrainians who have watched their country be ravaged by years of war. But instead of fleeing, Vasyl regularly travels to towns and cities near the front lines to provide lifesaving relief to people in need.

Since they're so close to the fighting, these areas are often dangerous, with the constant threat of bombings and land mines. But Vasyl and others like him still faithfully go where their help is needed most.

As he distributes essentials, he also shares the hope of Jesus Christ alongside pastors and other community members. And thanks to Bibles for All Ambassadors like you equipping him, Vasyl is also able to give Bibles to the men, women, and children he meets.

These copies of God's Word serve as a vital source of hope and comfort for Ukrainians facing the horrors of war. They're also essential for Christ-followers who want to grow in their relationship with God, but don't have a way to study God's Word right now.

"After such heartfelt encounters, people feel hope again – they know they are not forgotten," our partner said.

This is just one example of the lasting impact you're making as a Bibles for All Ambassador. Thank you for providing Bibles and meeting spiritual needs in Ukraine and around the world.
